No.Lep(Lab.)(3)-2(b)-2/77.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 29 of the Indian Trade Unions Act, 1926 (XVI of 1926), the Governor of Himachal Pradesh is pleased to make the following Regulations for carrying out the purposes of the said Act, the same having been previously published vide this Government Notification of even number, dated the 6th April, 1977.

REGULATIONS

1. Short title.—(a) These regulations may be called the Himachal Pradesh Trade Unions Regulations, 1978 and shall come into force at once.

(b) They shall extend to trade unions whose objects are confined to the State of Himachal Pradesh.

2. Definitions.—In these regulations,—

(a) "Act" means the Indian Trade Unions Act, 1926 (Act No. 16 of 1926).

(b) "form" means a form appended to these regulations.

(c) "section" means a section of the Act.

3. Application for registration.—Every application for registration of a trade union shall be made in Form "A".

4. Evidence to prove authority to make application.—Upon an application for the registration of a trade union, the Registrar may require from the applicant such evidence, as may seem to him necessary, to show that the applicants have been duly authorised to make the application on behalf of the trade union.

5. Form of Register.—The register of trade unions referred to in section 8 shall be maintained in Form "B".

6. Certificates of registration.—The certificate of registration issued by the Registrar under section 9 shall be in Form "C".

7. Fee of registration.—The fee payable for the registration of a trade union shall be as follows:—

Rs. 10 for a trade union with a membership of 1,000 or over.

Rs. 5 for a trade union with a membership of less than 1,000.

8. Withdrawal or cancellation of certificate of registration.—(1) Form of application for withdrawal or cancellation of its certificate of registration shall be sent to the Registrar in Form "D".

(2) Verification of application.—The Registrar on receiving an application for withdrawal or cancellation of registration shall, before granting the application, verify that the application was approved in a general meeting of a Trade Union or if it was not so approved, that it has the approval of a majority of the members of the Trade Union. For this purpose the Registrar may call for such other particulars, as he may deem necessary, and may examine any Office-bearer of the Union.

9. Appeals.—Any appeal made under sub-section (1) of section 11 of the Act must be filed within ninety days of the date on which the Registrar passed the order against which the appeal is made.

10. Change of address of head office of a trade union.—Notice of any change in the address of the head office of a trade union shall be given to the Registrar in Form "G".

11. Alteration of rules.—(1) On receiving a copy of an alteration made in the rules of a trade union under sub-section (3) of section 28, the Registrar shall unless he has reason to believe that the alteration has not been made in the manner provided by the rules of the Trade Union or unless the alteration is not in accordance with the Act, register the alteration in a register to be maintained for this purpose and shall notify the fact that he has done so to the Secretary of the Trade Union.

(2) The fee payable for registration of alterations of rules shall be Re. 1 for each set of alterations made simultaneously.

12. Change of name.—(1) The notice of any change of the name of a trade union shall be sent to the Registrar in Form "E".

(2) When the Registrar registers a change of name under section 25, sub-section (3) he shall certify under his signature at the feet of the certificate issued under regulation 6 that the new name has been registered. The Secretary shall present the certificate to the Registrar for making this entry.

13. Amalgamation of Trade Unions, Form of notice.—Notice of every amalgamation shall be sent to the Registrar in duplicate in Form "F".

14. Dissolution of registered trade unions.—When a registered trade union is dissolved, notice of the dissolution shall be sent to the Registrar in Form "H".

15. Distribution of funds.—Where it is necessary for the Registrar, under sub-section (2) of section 27, to distribute the funds of registered trade union which has been dissolved, he shall divide the funds among the members in proportion to the amounts contributed by them by way of subscription during their membership.

16. Annual returns.—(1) The annual return to be furnished under section 28, shall be submitted to the Registrar by the 30th April in each year and shall be in Form "I".

(2) For the purpose of examining the documents referred to para 1 of this regulation, the Registrar or any Officer so authorised by him on his behalf to do so, will call upon the concerned Union to produce only such documents as may be relevant to the investigation he will undertake for the time being.

17. Audit.—(1) Save as provided in sub-regulations (2), (3), (4) and (5) of this regulation the annual audit of the accounts of any registered Trade Union shall be conducted by an auditor authorised to audit the accounts of companies under sub-section (1) of section 226 of the Indian Companies Act, 1956.

(2) Where the membership of a registered trade union did not at any time during the year ending on the 31st December, exceed 2,000 the annual audit of the accounts may be conducted:—

- (a) by an examiner of local funds accounts, or
- (b) by any local fund auditor appointed by the State Government, or
- (c) by any person who having held an appointment under State Government in any audit or accounts department, is in receipt of a pension of not less than Rs. 200 per mensem.

(3) Where the membership of a registered trade union did not any time during the year ending on the 31st December exceed 1,000 the annual audit of the accounts may be conducted:—

- (a) by any two persons holding office as a Magistrate or a Judge or as a Councillor of any municipality or member of a local authority or of the State Legislature, or Parliament;
- (b) by any person who, having held an appointment under Government in any audit, or accounts department is in receipt of a pension from Government of not less than Rs. 75 a month; or
- (c) by any auditor appointed to conduct the audit of any co-operative societies by Government by or by the Registrar of Co-operative Societies or by any State Co-operative Organisation recognized by Government for this purpose.

(4) Where the membership of a registered trade union did not any time during the year ending on the 31st December, exceed 500, the annual audit of the accounts may be conducted by any two members of such registered trade union.

(5) Where the registered trade union is a federation of trade unions, and the number of such Unions affiliated to it at any time during the year ending on the 31st December, did not exceed 50, 15, or 5 respectively, the audit of the accounts of federation may be conducted as if it had not at any time during the year had a membership of more than 2,000, 1,000 or 500 respectively.

18. Disqualification of auditors.—Notwithstanding anything contained in regulation 17 no person who at any time during the year for which the accounts are to be audited was entrusted with any part of the funds or securities belonging to a registered trade union shall be eligible to audit the accounts of that Union.

19. Powers of auditors.—The auditor or auditors appointed in accordance with these regulations shall be given access to all the books of the registered trade unions concerned and shall verify the general statement submitted under section 28 with the accounts and vouchers relating thereto and shall thereafter sign the auditors on declaration appended to Form I, indicating separately on that form under his signature or their signatures a statement showing in what respect he or they find the return to be incorrect, not supported by vouchers or not in accordance with the Act. The particulars given in the statement shall indicate:—

- (a) every payment which appears to be unauthorized by the rules of the registered trade union concerned, or contrary to the provisions of the Act;
- (b) the amount of any deficiency or loss which appears to have been incurred by the negligence or misconduct of any person;
- (c) the amount of any sum which ought to have been put in is not brought to account by any person.

20. Audit of political fund.—The audit of the political fund of a registered trade union shall be carried out along with the audit of the general account of the registered trade union by the same auditor or auditors.

21. Inspection of register and documents.—(1) The register of trade unions maintained in accordance with regulation 5 shall be open to inspection by any person on payment of a fee of 50 paise.

(2) Any documents in the possession of the Registrar received from a registered trade union may be inspected by any member of that Union on payment of 50 paise for each document inspected.

(3) Documents shall be open to inspection every day on which the office of the Registrar is open and within such hours as may be fixed for this purpose by the Registrar.

(4) The Registrar may supply a certified copy of any such document to a registered trade union or member thereof on payment of 75 paise for the first two hundred words (or less) and 37 paise for every additional hundred words or fractional part thereof.

22. Rescission.—The Himachal Pradesh Trade Union Regulations, 1959 as applicable in the old areas and Punjab Trade Unions Regulations, 1927 as applicable in the territories added to Himachal Pradesh, are hereby rescinded but all acts done and orders issued under the rules so rescinded shall so far as they are not inconsistent with these rules, be deemed to have been respectively done and issued under these rules.
